Dear Myrna,

This letter is in response to your letter, which was in response to my letter, in response to something that I believe I have forgotten. I hope at least this much has been cleared up.

From my letter mailed October 6, 1987

"We are loaded with hardcover copies of In Celebration of Ourselves and if you wish to have that instead of the papercover, you can have a hardcover for a 25% discount. So, $25.00 + postage and handling $2.00 = $27.00 - 25% = $20.25, but for you $20.00 even. I can't discount the softcover."

I have already mailed a Hardcover Copy of my last and only book, In Celebration of Ourselves, to Jonathan. If you can find $10.00 more someplace, and send it to SPACES our bookkeeper will get off my back for what she claims is the casual way I do business. Make sure Jonathan shows you the book, which I hope you will enjoy!

$$35.00 - $10.00 = $25.00$  Institutional Membership. This leaves  $$10.00$  (I have) +  $$10.00$  (more) =  $$20.00$  for copy of the special priced Hardcover book.

I have to ask my brother certain questions because the face staring out from the mirror somehow looks different from the cherubic, delicate but strong, sensitive, bright eyed, tight skinned and tanned face that I have memories of. I will spare you from a contemporary description.

I have enclosed some postcards of the Watts Towers, for you, with the hope you will accept this bribe and destroy this letter once you have read it.

My best,

Steve Rosen
